the lips unclosed.

The profile by Brown I have not been able to find, and it is the more strange, as the letters have never been out of my possession, except for a few days, when I lent them to Severn, during my residence in Rome. Perhaps it was then extracted from the letter, certainly without the knowledge of Severn. It was not copied by me; as I have not opened the letters for years. You will think this strange; but it is no less true. I can never overcome my first painful impressions.

With kindest remembrances to all your family, I remain

Yours very sincerely

If the balance of the Benefit Fund is is correct, I shall be glad, for it is more than I expected.

I am sorry that the last picture by Severn was ever painted, it is so very unfavorable.

My dear Mr Lowman

I enclose you the copy of the mask. It is perfect, except the mouth, the lips being rather thicker, and somewhat compressed, which renders the expression more severe, than the sweet, and mild original

With kindest remembrances to all the family, believe me to remain Yours very sincerely
